WHAT IS IT?

The Secondary Schools Comic Art Competition is your chance to showcase your comic or graphic novel inspired artwork, in the lead up to Clydebank Museum and Art Gallery's summer exhibition, Comic Invention.

We want to see a drawing or design inspired by your favourite comic book, graphic novel, or associated characters. Your artwork can be in full colour or black and white, and drawn in materials of your choice. Submissions should be made on either A4 or A3 size paper. A completed application form should be paper clipped to your finished artwork, upon submission.

WHEN WE WANT IT

The closing date for entries is Thursday, 30th March 2017. All entries should be handed in to your School Librarian/School Library Co-ordinator, or your local public library by 30th March. Any artworks received after this date will not be considered.

WHAT DO YOU GET?

AN EXHIBITION: If your work is shortlisted, it will be framed and exhibited in the Garden Gallery in Clydebank Town Hall between 5th and 30th of May 2017.
